If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it. A prominent druggist says "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments; corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism. You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Adv.

Indiana Housekeeping.
If you are a race fan read this to your wife. The night before the 500-mile race at Indianapolis one sprinkling wagon and eleven men actually scrub every brick on the two and one-half mile course. Sure, it only comes once a year, but who wants a race course for a kitchen?

The housewife smiles with satisfaction as she looks at the basket of clear, white clothes and thanks Red Cross Bag Blue. At grocers, 5c.

"How did the play about the amateur cook pan out?"
"Oh, it had a lot of good roles."

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as Othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots. Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from your druggist, and apply a little of it at night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than one ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion. Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

To Be Avoided.

NOT JUST WHAT HE WANTED

Admiral Had Not Taken Into Consideration the Peculiarities of the Cockney Accent.

Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, at the annual dinner of the Publishers' association, told this story:

"When President Wilson and his physician, Admiral Grayson, visited Buckingham palace, they were assigned to beautiful rooms, gorgeously decorated. Feeling tired, Admiral Grayson stretched himself on a luxurious couch, when in walked a funkey dressed in knickerbockers, wearing a wig and other equipment of the royal servant. In a cockney accent he asked if Admiral Grayson would have some tea.

"No, I never drink tea," replied Admiral Grayson.

"Something else?" queried the servant.

"No doubt reflecting on the dry conditions rapidly spreading through the United States, Admiral Grayson replied:

"Well, yes, I would like a little Haig and Haig."

"Certainly, certainly," promptly responded the funkey, and four minutes later he brought back two soft-boiled eggs."

Reward of Politeness.

They were entertaining the minister at dinner, according to the London Telegraph, and after dessert little Johnny said:

"Won't you take another piece of pie?"

The minister laughed. "Well, Johnny," he said, "since you are so polite, I will have another."

"Good!" said Johnny. "Now, ma, remember your promise. You said if it was necessary to cut into the second pie I could have another piece!"

Casket 120 Years in Making.

The casket used in the recent funeral of Grand Prince Yi of Korea was fashioned 120 years ago and was coated with black lacquer two and a half inches thick, states the Seoul Press. In Korea it has been a custom from olden times to keep various sizes of coffins in the Chosel (Long Life) palace, and to apply a new coat of lacquer twice each year, in spring and autumn. Thus the lacquer gains in thickness with each generation. Before being placed in the casket the grand prince's body was bathed in sandalwood water by court ladies, then dressed successively in an ordinary Korean dress, a military uniform and a court robe. Then it was wrapped in linen, next with silk wadding and once more in linen.

Personally Parsed.

This is how a high school girl recently parsed the sentence, "He kissed me":

"He," she began, with a fond lingering over the word that brought the crimson to her cheeks, "is a pronoun, third person, singular number, masculine gender, a gentleman, and pretty well off, universally considered a good catch. 'Kissed,' is a verb transitive, indicative mood, indicating affection, first and third persons, plural number, and governed by circumstances. 'Me'—oh, well, everybody knows me!" And she sat down.
